

APPOINTMENT OF MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, &c.

MESSAGE

FROM

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

Transmitting a list of Appointments made from Members of Congress since 3d March, 1825, &c. &c.

JANUARY 26, 1833.

Read, and laid upon the table.

WASHINGTON, 23d January, 1833.

To the Speaker of the House of Representatives:

I transmit to the House of Representatives a report of the Secretary of State, with a list of appointments made by the Executive since 13th April, 1826, from members of Congress during their term of service, and for twelve months thereafter, pursuant to the resolution of the said House of 26th December, 1832, which I referred to him; and which appointments are recorded in his office. I send, likewise, a list of similar appointments, also furnished by the Secretary of State, and of record in his office, from the 3d March, 1825, to 13th April, 1826.

ANDREW JACKSON.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,

Washington, 23d January, 1833.

To the PRESIDENT of the United States.

The Secretary of State, to whom has been referred the resolution of the House of Representatives of the 26th December, 1832, requesting the President to cause to be laid before that House a list of all appointments made by the Executive since 13th April, 1826, from the members of Congress, during their term of service, and for twelve months thereafter, has the honor to submit to the President the list, enclosed, of appointments of the descriptions referred to, which have been recorded in this office; which list embraces the other particulars required by the said resolution: to which is added, by the President's desire, a list of the like appointments made by the Executive from the 3d March, 1825, to 13th April, 1826, also of record in this department.

Respectfully submitted.

EDW. LIVINGSTON.

WASHINGTON, January 29, 1833.

To the House of Representatives:

I transmit herewith, to the House of Representatives, a report from the Postmaster General, which I request may be considered as forming a part of my message of the 23d instant, in answer to the resolution calling for "a list of all appointments made by the Executive since the 13th April, 1826, from the members of Congress during their term of service, and for twelve months thereafter, &c. &c."

ANDREW JACKSON.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,

January 28, 1833.

SIR: In obedience to your request of the 24th instant, to communicate to you the names of all members of Congress who, since the 13th April, 1826, have received appointments in this department during their term of service, or within twelve months thereafter; and, also, to state all similar appointments made between the 3d March, 1825, and the 13th of April, 1826, I have the honor to report, that it does not appear that any member of Congress has, since the 13th of April, 1826, or the 3d March, 1825, received any appointment to office in this department during his term of service: that the following named persons have received appointments in this department who had been, within twelve months preceding such appointment, members of the Congress of the United States, viz.

Since the 13th April, 1826.

1. Selah R. Hobbie, appointed Assistant Postmaster General on the first day of November, 1829. His term of service, in Congress, expired on the 3d March, 1829.

2. Nicholas D. Coleman, appointed postmaster Maysville, Kentucky, the 7th September, 1831. His term of service, in Congress, expired the 3d March, 1831.

Between the 3d March, 1825, and the 13th April, 1826.

1. John F. Parrot, appointed postmaster Portsmouth, New Hampshire, 24th February, 1826. His term of service, in the Senate of the United States, expired 3d March, 1825.

2. Lot Clark, appointed postmaster Norwich, New York, 29th April, 1825. His term of service, in Congress, expired 3d March, 1825.

I have the honor to be,

With very great respect,

Your obedient servant,

W. T. BARRY.

To the PRESIDENT of the United States.
